

Eason Chan - Isha's Song

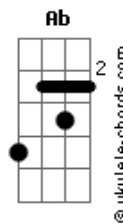

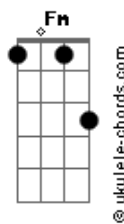

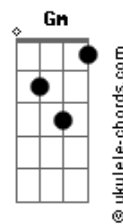

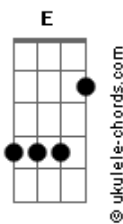

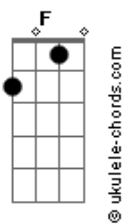

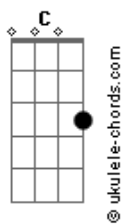

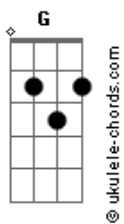

tom:
 Child don't be afraid
 Be yourself, you can find your own way
 When it's the darkest
 The stars shine most brightly
 No need to cry, it's okay
 It's the cycle of life in play
 Yet even the rocks they still flower and bloom
 [Pré-Chorus]

Split the mountains, let her see me
 Let the stars sing, come and shine on me
 Break the clouds up, with a touch of blue
 Even if the world is full of desolation
 [Chorus]

Lift our heads and we can see the moon
 Watching with the eyes of a child
 Even though we're all alone we must still bloom ourselves
 Don't be so sad now

Remember

Acordes

Even if the tears come don't you dare stop
 Run until even time runs out
 Be free and fly far now

[Pré-Chorus]

Split the mountains, let her see me
 Let the stars sing, come and shine on me
 Break the clouds up, with a touch of blue
 Even if the world is full of desolation

[Chorus]

Lift our heads and we can see the moon
 Watching with the eyes of a child
 Even though we're all alone we must still bloom ourselves
 Don't be so sad now

Remember

Even if the tears come don't you dare stop
 Run until even time runs out
 Be free and fly far now
 It's ok now
 Give me a hug now
 It's time to move on now
 I'm good how I am now
