

Easton Corbin - Let Alone You

Tom: C (D)
Intro: D

D
It was Sunday afternoon, I was sunk in my recliner
Em
Football game was on, Tampa Bay and Carolina
G A

I wasn't payin much attention The volume down not watchin it at all

This house was like an ice box, had all the curtains drawn

Em
I had it more like a hotel room, and less like a home

G A D
It's been so quiet around here lately, I wasn't thinkin anyone would call

D
Let alone you, All the way from Dallas

Em
Out of the blue Sayin that you missed us

G A
And time and distance made you see, You were lost without me

D
How did you know I'd finally hit the bottom

Em
An all time low Was suddenly forgotten

G Gbm G
The sound of your voice on the line Made fate turn circles on a dime

Gbm G Bm G A
Just when I thought I'd never find, somebody new, Let alone you

G
Now here I am at the baggage claim
A nervous wreck waitin on your plane

Ring in my hands, checkin my watch

I never dreamed forty-eight hours ago, I'd be standin here waitin on anyone

A
No, not anyone

D
Let Alone You, All the way from Dallas

Em
Out of the blue, sayin that you missed us

G A
And time and distance made you see, you were lost without me

D
How did you know, I'd finally hit the bottom

Em
An all time low, suddenly forgotten

G Gbm G
The sound of your voice on the line made fate turn circles on the dime

Gbm G Bm A G
Just when I thought I'd never find somebody new

A D G A
Let alone you, Let alone you
