

Ed Sheeran - Castle On The Hill

Tom: D

When I was six years old I broke my leg
I was running from my brother and his friends
And tasted the sweet perfume of the mountain grass I rolled down
I was younger then, take me back to when I
Found my heart and broke it here
Made my friends and lost them through the years
And I've not seen the boarding fields in so long, I know I've grown
But I can't wait to go home

I'm on my way, driving at nineteen
Down those country lanes singing to Tiny Dancer
And I miss the way you made me feel, it's real
We watched the sunset over the castle on the hill

Fifteen years old and smoking hand-rolled cigarettes
Running from the law through the backfields
And getting drunk with my friends

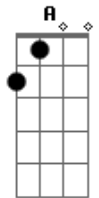

Had my first kiss on a Friday night
I don't reckon that I did it right
But I was younger then, take me back to when
We found weekend jobs, when we got paid
We'd buy cheap spirits and drink them straight
Me and my friends have not thrown up in so long, oh, how we've grown
But I can't wait to go home

I'm on my way, driving at nineteen
Down those country lanes singing to Tiny Dancer
And I miss the way you made me feel, it's real
We watched the sunset over the castle on the hill
Over the castle on the hill
Over the castle on the hill

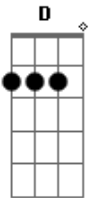

One friend left to sell clothes, one works down by the coast
One had two kids but lives alone, one's brother overdosed
One's already on his second wife, one's just barely getting by
But these people raised me and I can't wait to go home

And I'm on my way, I still remember
These old country lanes when we did not know the answers
And I miss the way you made me feel, it's real
We watched the sunset over the castle on the hill
Over the castle on the hill
Over the castle on the hill
