

Ed Sheeran - Old Phone

tom:
 [Primeira Parte]

I found my old phone today
 In a box that I had hidden away
 Nostalgia tryin' to lead me astray
 Maybe I'll unwrite some wrongs
 I charged the battery again
 Combinations 'cause my passcode had changed
 Opened up and saw familiar names
 Now I wonder where they've gone

[Refrão]

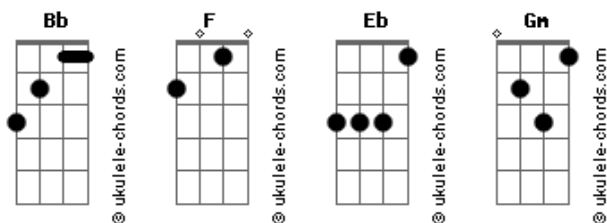

Conversations with my dead friends
 Messages from all my exes
 I kinda think that this was best left
 In the past, where it belongs
 I feel an overwhelming sadness
 Of all the friends I do not have left
 Seeing how my family has fractur?d
 Growin' up and movin' on

[Segunda Parte]

I found my old phone today
 Arguments that I tried to keep at bay
 Th? ones who loved me, I just pushed them away
 Couldn't tell the difference from the leeches
 My closed hand still holds some mates
 But if I'm open, it gets smaller day by day
 I can't tell if it is pleasure or pain
 Trying to keep within my remain

[Refrão]

Acordes

Conversations with my dead friends
 Messages from all my exes
 I kinda think that this was best left
 In the past, where it belongs
 I feel an overwhelming sadness
 Of all the friends I do not have left
 Seeing how my family has fractur?d
 Growin' up and movin' on

[Pós-refrão]

Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
 Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
 Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
 Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh

[Ponte]

I found my old phone today
 So full of love, yet so full of hate
 I put it back inside there from whence it came
 Nothing good will come from regretting

[Refrão]

Conversations with my dead friends
 Messages from all my exes
 I kinda think that this was best left
 In the past, where it belongs
 I feel an overwhelming sadness
 Of all the friends I do not have left
 Seeing how my family has fractur?d
 Growin' up and movin' on

[Final]

I found my old phone today