When it's too hurt but what you deserve is the truth
  Fm
                                                                Don't take it personal, I just can't say this in person to you
I've been a liar, been a thief
                                                                So I revert to the studio like Hole In The Wall diners
Been a lover, been a cheat
                                                                Don't have to be reserved in a booth
    D Em
All my sins need holy water, feel it washin' over me
                                                                I just feel like the person who I'm turnin' into is
A little one, I don't want to admit to something
                                                                Irreversible, I prayed on you like it's church at the pew
If all it's gonna cause is pain
                                                                And now that I got you I don't want you
Truth in my lies right now are falling like the rain
                                                                Took advantage of my thirst to pursue
So let the river run
                                                               Why do I do this dirt that I do?
                                                                          Em
He's coming home with his neck scratched to catch flack
                                                                Get on my soapbox and preach, my sermon in speech
Sweat jackets and dress slacks, mismatch
                                                                Detergent and bleach is burned in the womb
On his breast jackets is sex addict
                                                                'Cause now with her in the womb
                                         Am D
                                                                We can't bring her in this world, shoulda' knew
And she just wants to exact revenge and get back
It's a chess match, she's on his back like a jetpack
                                                                To use protection 'fore I bit into your forbidden fruit
She's kept track of all his internet chats
                                                                Fuck!
And guess who just so happens to be moving on to the next?
                                                             D I've been a liar, been a thief
Actually, just shit on my last chick and she has what my ex
                                                                Been a lover, been a cheat
'Cause she loves danger, psychopath
                                                                All my sins need holy water, feel it washin' over me
And you don't fuck with no man's girl, even I know that
                                                                A little one, I don't want to admit to something
But she's devised some plan to stab him in the back
                                                                If all it's gonna cause is pain
                            Am
                                                                                 G
                                                                Truth in my lies right now are falling like the rain
Knife in hand, says the relationship's hanging by a strand
So she's been on the web lately
                                                                So let the river run
Says maybe she'll be my Gwen Stacy, to spite her man
                                                                Ooh Ohh Ohh
And I know she's using me to try to play him, I don't care
                                                                Ooh Ohh Ohh
Hi Suzanne, but I shoulda' said "Bye Suzanne" after the first night, but tonight I am
                                                               Always the bridesmaid, never the bride hey
I've been a liar, been a thief
                                                                What can I say, if life was a highway
Been a lover, been a cheat
                                                                This sequel's an enclave, I'll be swerving in 5 lanes
    D Em
All my sins need holy water, feel it washin' over me
                                                                Speeds at a high rate, like I'm sliding on ice made
A little one, I don't want to admit to something
                                                               Thats what I made, came at you sideways,
                                                                I can't keep my lies straight, What I made you terminate my
If all it's gonna cause is pain
Truth in my lies right now are falling like the rain
                                                                This love triangle angle left us in a wrecked tangle
So let the river run
                                                               What else can I say, it was fun for a while
One night stand turned into night stayin'
                                                                Bet I really would've loved your smile
It was cold, some lights gram, y'all be hung tight and Didnt really wanna
He found out, now she feels deserted and used but fuck it, whats one more lie to tell an unborn child
'Cause he left, so what? He did it first to her too
                                                                             Em
                                                                I've been a liar, been a thief
Now how am I supposed to tell this girl that we're through?
                                                                Been a lover, been a cheat
It's hard to find the words, I'm aloof, nervous and suited
