

Ed Sheeran - Sunburn

Tom: G

You're not her
 Though I try to see you differently
 I toe the line
 See I'm searching for what used to be, mine ooohhhh
 I Saw your eyes
 Then I saw her staring back at me
 And I will try
 To find another one who's suited to me
 As well as her

I've moved, far away from you
 And I want to See you here beside me dear
 but things aren't clear

And we never even tried
 We never even talked
 We never even thought in the long run
 Whenever it was painful
 Whenever I was away
 I'd miss you
 I miss you

She was mine
 I was hers
 And all that's in between if she would cry
 I would shelter her

And keep her from the darkness that will be

If I moved, far away from you
 And I want to
 See you here beside me dear
 but things aren't clear
 And we never even tried
 We never even talked
 We never even thought in the long run
 Whenever it was painful
 Whenever I was away

I'd miss you
 I miss you
 Don't trap me in, it's not my time
 If you cut me deep then I might lie

And if you
 Scar and leave me, like a sunburn
 Don't trap me in, it's not my time
 if you cut deep then I might lie
 And you
 Scarred and left me, like a sunburn

And we never even tried
 We never even talked
 We never even thought in the long run
 Whenever I was away
 I'd miss you
 I miss you
