Now I don't want to hate you

Just wish you'd never gone for the man

And waited two weeks at least

Before you let him take you

I stayed true

I kind of knew you liked the dude from private school

He's waiting for the time to move

I knew he had his eyes on you

He's not the right guy for you

Don't hate me cos I write the truth

No I would never lie to you

But it was never fine to lose you

And what a way to find out

It never came from my mouth
You never changed your mind

But you were just afraid to find out

But f- it, I won't be changing the subject I love it

I'll make your little secret public its nothing

I'm just disgusted with the skeletons you sleep with

In your closet to get back at me
Trapped and I'm lacking sleep

Fact is you're mad at me because I backtrack so casually

You're practically my family

If we married then I'll guess you'd have to be

But tragically our love just lost the will to live

But would I kill to give it one more shot

I think not

I don't love you baby

I don't need you baby

I don't want you no

Any-more

I don't love you baby

I don't need you baby

I don't want you no

Any-more

Recently I tend to zone out

Up in my headphones to Holocene

You promised your body but I'm away so much

I stay more celibate than in a monastery

Im not cut out for life on the road

Cos I didn't know I'd miss you this much

And at the time we'd just go, so sue me

I guess I'm not the man that you need

Ever since you went to uni

I've been sofa surfing with a rucksack

Full of less cash and I guess that could get bad

But when I broke the industry that's when I broke your heart

I was supposed to chart and celebrate

But good things are over fast

I know it was hard to deal with and see this

I tend to turn you off and switch on my professional features

Then I turn the music off

And all I'm left with is to pick up my personal pieces, Jesus

I never really want to believe this

Got advice from my dad and he

Told me that family is all I'll ever have and need

I guess I'm unaware of it

Success is nothing if you have no one left to share it with

I don't love you baby

I don't need you baby

I don't want you no

Any-more

I don't love you baby

I don't need you baby

I don't want you no

Any-more

And since you left I've given up my days off

It's what I need to stay strong

I know you have a day job But mine is 24/7

I fell like writing a book I guess I lied in the hook

Cos I still love you and I need you by my side if I could

The irony is if my career and music didn't exist

In six years yeah you'd probably be my wife with a kid

I'm frightened to think if I depend on cider and drink

And lighting a spliff I fall into a spiral and it's Just hiding my misguiding thoughts that I'm trying to kill
 And I'd be writing my will before I'm 27
 I'll die from a thrill Go down in history as just a wasted talent
 Can I face the challenge Or did I make a mistake erasing
 It's only therapy My thoughts just get ahead of me
 Eventually I'll be fine I know that it was never meant to be Either way I guess I'm not prepared
 But I'll say this:
 These things happen for a reason and you can't change
 Take my apology I'm sorry for the honesty

But I had to get this off my chest
 I don't love you baby
 I don't need you baby
 I don't want you no
 Any-more
 I don't love you baby
 I don't need you baby
 I don't want you no
 Any-more
