

Eddie Cochran - Cut Across Shortly

Tom: ^C
^C
 Now a country boy called Shorty and a ^F
 city boy named Dan,
^C
 had to prove who could run the fastest ^{D7} ^G
 to win miss Lucy's hand.
^C ^F
 Now Dan had all the money and he also
^C had the looks.
^C
 But Shorty must have had something, boys,
^{G7} ^C
 that can't be found in books.
 CHORUS:
^F
 Well, 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across.'
^C
 That's what miss Lucy said.
^F
 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across..
^{G7} ^C
 it's you I wanna wed.
^C ^F
 Now, Dan had been in training, a week before
^C
 the race.
^C ^{D7}
 He made up his mind ol' Shorty, would end
^G
 in second place.
^C
 And Dan with his long legs a-flyin' left
^F
 Shorty far behind.
^C
 And Shorty heard him holler out..

^{G7} ^C
 'Miss Lucy, you'll soon be mine!'
 CHORUS:
^F
 Well, 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across.'
^C
 That's what miss Lucy said.
^F
 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across..
^{G7} ^C
 it's you I wanna wed.
^C ^F
 But Shorty wasn't worried, there was a smile upon his face.
^C
 He knew that he was a-goin' to win,
^{D7} ^G
 cause Lucy had fixed the race.
^C ^F
 And just like that old story, about the turtle and the hare.
^C
 When Dan crossed over the finish line,
^{G7} ^C
 he found Shorty waiting there.
 CHORUS:
^F
 Well, 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across.'
^C
 That's what miss Lucy said.
^F
 'Cut across Shorty, Shorty, cut across..
^{G7} ^C
 it's you I wanna wed...
 OUTRO:
^{G7} ^C ^{G7} ^C
 It's you I wanna wed... it's you I wanna wed. (fade.)

Acordes

