

Edward Reekers - The Words To Say I Love You

tom:
Intro: G7 G7
And as the sign clears
     C C
Memories are faded to awaking
      C C F F
 It's like a turn style
     C C
A passage to which ever road you're taking
Is it plain enough for words?
Or just too complex to see the move we're making?
                  D7
A corny legend
Love will soothe the ones that feel forsaken
I see your eyes now C
                                                                                                                                F F F F
Motions that are hardly worth to mention \begin{tabular}{c} \begin{t
The way your voice pitched
                                                                                                                                          F F F F
Could in itself not even raise attention?

Will it last eternally?
   Fm
Can we see it through with all our best intentions?
             D7
The questions seems here G7 G7
                           C Bb Bb
Words be overruled by comprehension
So now be silent Eb Eb
                      Ab Ab Ab Ab
Never let your shadow walk before you
            Eb Eb
Don't stir the surface
Eb Eb
Ripples can be fine to highly sail through
       Fm
Catch the moment when it's there
Don't expect more than the straw that you can cling to F7
Then in the morning
                                 Eb C7 C7
We won't need the words to say I love you
   F7
In the morning
              Bb7
Bb7
We won't need the words to say I love you
