

Elevation Worship - Jesus Be The Name (feat. Tiffany Hudson)

```
The one the darkness can't deny
                tom:
                                                                   Bbm
                                                               The resurrection and the life, Jesus
                Dh
Intro: Db Ab Gb Db Ab Gb
                                                                          Fhm
                                                               Jesus Your Name can save, Your name can heal
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               Your Name can make the storm be still Gb
          Ab
                                                                  Bbm
I could sing Your Name for all my life
                                                               You never fail, You never will, Jesus
And still find more to love each
                                                               Jesus the bread of life broken for us
Bbm Ab
                                                                   Gb
  Jesus be the name ever on my lips
                                                               The wounded and the worthy one
Bbm Ab
                                                                   Bbm
   Sweeter every time that I call on it
                                                               The first the last and soon to come, Jesus
                                                                       Fbm
[Refrão 1]
                                                               Jesus the King who overwhelmed the grave
                                                                  Gb
                                                               The Lord who will forever reign
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               The Name above all other names, Jesus
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               [Refrão 31
There's just something 'bout Your Name
That makes me cry Holy
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
                                                                            Db
                                                                                              Bhm
                  Fhm
There is no other name, there is no other name
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
                 Db
                                                                            Ebm
There is no other name, Jesus You're worthy
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
                                                                           Db
                                                                                             Bbm
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
[Segunda Partel
          Ab
                   Ebm
                                                               [Refrão 31
You have been the friend who never left
Db Ab
        Ebm
                                                                            Fbm
I won't forget your faithfulness
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
Bbm Ab
                                                                            Db
                                                                                              Bhm
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
   Jesus be the name ever on my lips
Bbm Ab
                                                                            Ebm
   Sweeter every time that I call on it
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
                                                                            Dh
                                                                                              Bbm
[Refrão 2]
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Gh
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Bbm
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               Oh oh oh
             Bbm Ab
                                                               Ab
That makes me cry Holy
                                                               Jesus
                  Ebm
                                                               Ebm
There is no other name, there is no other name
                                                               Oh oh oh
                 Dh
                             Bbm
                                                               Gh
There is no other name, Jesus You're worthy
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Bbm
[Refrão 2]
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Jesus
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               [Refrão 3]
There's just something 'bout Your Name
There's just something 'bout Your Name
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
             Bbm Ab
                                                                            Dh
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
That makes me cry Holy
                                                                            Ebm
                  Ebm
There is no other name, there is no other name
                                                               Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name
                 Db
                             Bbm
                                                                            Db
                                                                                              Bbm
There is no other name, Jesus You're worthy
                                                               Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory
( Ebm Gb Bbm Ab )
( Ebm Gb Bbm Ab )
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Gb
[Ponte]
                                                               Oh oh oh
                                                               Db
                                                               Oh oh oh
Jesus Your Name is like the morning light
                                                               Bbm Ab
   Gb
                                                               Jesus
```

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

There?s healing in Your Name Oh oh oh Gb Oh oh oh There?s healing in Your Name Db Oh oh oh There?s healing in Your Name Bbm Ab Ab It makes me cry holy Jesus There?s freedom in Your Name [Refrão 3] There?s freedom in Your Name Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name There?s freedom in Your Name Bbm Db Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory Ab It makes me cry holy Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name Bbm Salvation in Your Name Db Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory Salvation in Your Name [Refrão 3] Salvation in Your Name Ebm Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name It makes me cry holy Db Bbm Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory Ebm Jesus be the Name Jesus be the Name, Jesus be the Name Gb Jesus be the Name Db Bbm Jesus be the Name that gets all the glory Jesus be the Name [Alt Refrão] Ab That gets all the glory

Acordes

Ebm

