

Elias - The Ballad Of Every Town Ive Ever Been To

tom: Em

Hello. I am Elias Em

And you're going to remember this forever G

I was born a drifter D

And my highway is the sky C

(Em G D C)

[Primeira Parte]

Em
Pittsburgh to Philly
G
Chicago to L.A
D
Portland, San Diego
C
Down to Santa Fe
Em
Hartford to Albany
G
Couldn't get much worse
D
Every time I come here it feels like I've been cursed C
Em G
Minneapolis, all the way to Omaha
D C
I can't even describe the ignorance I saw

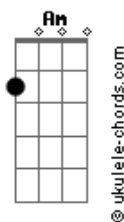

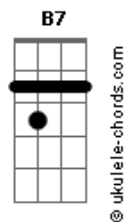

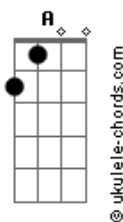

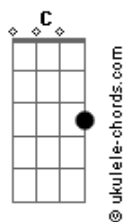

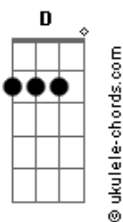

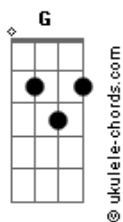

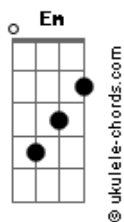

[Refrão]

Em B7
I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
Am Em
But I see so many stupid people, I wanna punch them in the face

[Segunda Parte]

Em G
Every city I go, it all feels the same

Acordes

D C
It's got to be the people, they're the ones to blame
Em G
Detroit to Nashville - it's an American music scene
D C
When I look into their eyes it makes me wanna scream

[Refrão]

Em B7
I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
Am Em
But I see so many lost people, I wanna punch them in the face

[Terceira Parte]

Em
New York, it feels like hell
G
And San Antonio as well
D C
Phoenix to Seattle is where my darkest thoughts dwell

[Refrão]

Em B7
I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
Am Em
Grab your cross and walk with me, or I'll punch you in the face
Em B7
I'm waiting for a town that's not such a disgrace
Am Em
But I see so many stupid people, I wanna punch them in the face

(Em G D C)

Em
So I'll keep searching
G
Until I find that town
D
But until that day
C Em
I'll be around
