Eliza Doolittle - Pack Up

Tom: G

         C            G
I get tired, and upset
         C                    Am
And I'm trying to care a little less
         C                G
When I google I only get depressed
              C                    Am
I was taught to dodge those issues...I was told
         C              G
Don't worry, there's no doubt
                 C              Am
There's always something to cry about
                 C                 G
When you're stuck in an angry crowd
              C                      D
They don't think what they say, before they open their mouths
C                                G            C
G
Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and bury them
beneath the sea
C                          G
I don't care what the people may say
             C              D
What the people may say about me
C                          G
Pack up your troubles, get your old grin back
C                      G
Don't worry about the calvery
C                      G

I don't care what the whipseres say
                    C              D
Cause they whisper too loud for me
      C  D            C        D
Hot topic, maybe I should drop it,
                     C
It's a touchy subject,
   Am
And I like to tiptoe round the shit going down,
         C          G            C            Am
Got penny but no pound So if your business is running out
                          C            G
It's not my buisness to talk about
C                                        D
They don't think what to say  Before they open their mouths
C                      G            C
G
Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and bury them
beneath the sea
C                      G
I don't care what the people may say
             C              D
What the people may say about me
C                                G
Pack up your troubles, get your old grin back
C                      G
Don't worry about the calvery
C                      G
I don't care what the whipseres say
                    C              D
Cause they whisper too loud for me
