

Elliott Smith - Alameda

Tom: F

Eb Verso 1:

C A Am
You walk down Alameda shuffling your deck of trick cards
F
Over everyone
C F B
Like some precious only son
Am F
Face down, bow to the champion

Verso 2:

You walk down Alameda looking at the cracks in the sidewalk
Thinking about your friends
How you maintain all them in
A constant state of suspense

Refrão 1:

Dm E Am
For your own protection over their affection
Eb Gm
Nobody broke your heart
C F Bb C

Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb

You broke your own 'cos you can't finish what you start

Verso 3:

Walk down Alameda brushing off the nightmares you wish
Could plague me when I'm awake
So now you see your first mistake
Was thinking that you could relate

Ponte:

F G Am
For one or two minutes she liked you
G F G Am
But the fix is in

Solo over verse chords

Refrão 2:

You're all pretension
I never pay attention
Nobody broke your heart
You broke your own 'cos you can't finish what you start
