

Elliott Smith - Baby Britain

Tom: G

Em Am
baby britain feels the best
G C
floating over a sea of vodka
Em Am
separated from the rest
G C
fights problems with bigger problems
Em Am
sees the ocean fall and rise
G C
counts the waves that somehow didn't hit her
Em Am
water pouring from her eyes
G C
alcoholic and very bitter

Chorus:

Em Em Em Em C
for someone half as smart
Em Em Em Em C
you'd be a work of art
Em Em Em Em C G
you put your-self a- part
Am C
and i can't help until you start

Verse 2:

Em Am
we knocked another couple back
G C
the dead soliders lined up on the table
Em Am
still prepared for an attack
G C
they didn't know they'd been disabled
Em Am
felt a wave a rush of blood
G C

you won't be happy til the bottle's broken
Em Am
and you're out swimming in the flood
G C
you kept back kept unspoken

Repeat chorus

Bridge:

C A
you got a look in your eye
D
when you're saying goodbye
B
like you wanna say hi

Instrumental:

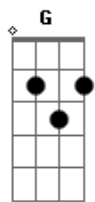

Em Em Em Em C (3X)
G Am C

Verse 3:

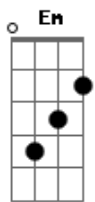

Em Am
the light was on but it was dim
G C revolver's been turned over
Em Am
and now it's ready once again
G C
the radio was playing crimson and clover
Em Am
london bridge is safe and sound
G C
no matter what you keep repeating
Em Am
nothing's gonna drag me down
G C
to a death that's not worth cheating

Repeat chorus 2X
