Elton John - Finish Line (feat. Stevie Wonder)

```
                                   tom:
                            F
Intro:  Gm7   C   F   Dm

[Primeira Parte]

 Gm7        C
You, oh you
                 F           Dm
Are still a beauty to behold
 Gm7            C
You?ve been my muse
         F              F7
Every story that I?ve told

     Bb                C
Oh, take me back some years
                        Am7
To when we were young without a fear
   Gm7                   C             Dm
All along you have been the song that I wanna hear

[Refrão]

           Bb             F
I?ve been down the darkest alleys
             C                    Dm
Been to the bottom where the angels cry
            Bb               F
Thought it had all been, all for nothing
         C                    F
Until I saw you at the finish line

[Segunda Parte]

 Gm7      C          F        C  Dm
Forgive me, for the ways I?ve let you  down
 Gm7          C          F                F7
Won?t you give me, another chance to make you proud

     Bb                C
Oh, flash forward twenty years
                    Am7               Dm
Forever keep me young and my conscience clear
   Gm7                    C
All along, you have been the song
                Dm  C     Dm
That I wanna hear,  ooh yeah, ah

[Refrão]
```
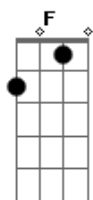

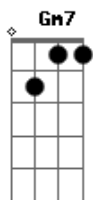

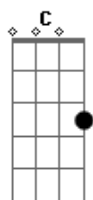

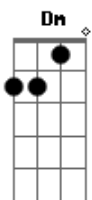

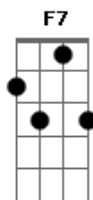

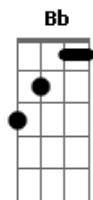

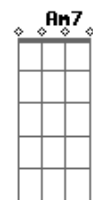

```
           Bb              F
I?ve been down the darkest alleys
             C                    Dm
Been to the bottom where the angels cry

(where the angels cry)
            Bb               F
Thought it had all been, all for nothing
         C                    F
Until I saw you at the finish line

( Gm7   C   F   Dm )
( Gm7   C   F   F7 )
( Bb   C   Am7   Dm )
( Gm7    C   Dm )

[Refrão]

               Bb              F
Yes, I?ve been down the darkest alleys
                 C                    Dm
Been to the bottom where the angels cry (angels cry)
                Bb               F
Thought it had all been, all for nothing
         C                    F
Until I saw you at the finish line

(at the finish line)
                Bb               F
Oh, I?ve been down the darkest alleys
                 C                    Dm
Been to the bottom watching life go by

(watching life go by)
                Bb               F
Thought it had all been, all for nothing
         C                    F
Until I saw you at the finish line (finish line)

[Final]

 Bb                          F
I?ve been down the darkest alleys
                 C                    Dm
Been to the bottom where the angels cry
                Bb               F
Thought it had all been, all for nothing
         C                    F
Until I saw you at the finish line
```

Acordes