

Elton John - Greatest Discovery

Tom: C

G
Peering out of tiny eyes, The grubby hands that gripped the rail

F
G
Wiped the window clean of frost, As the morning air laid on the latch

G
A whistle awakened someone there, Next door to the nursery just down the hall

F
G
A strange new sound you never heard before, a strange new sound that makes boys explore

G
Tread neat so small those little feet, Amid the morning his small heart beats

F
G
So much excitement yesterday, That must be rewarded must be displayed

C
Large hands lift him through the air

Bm
B7
Excited eyes contain him there

C
G
The eyes of those he loves and knows

F
But what's this extra bed just here

G
His puzzled head tipped to one side, Amazement swims in those bright green eyes

F
G
Glancing down upon this thing, That makes strange sounds, strange sounds that sing

G
In those silent happy seconds, That surround the sound of this event

F
G
A parent smile is made in moments, They have made for you a friend

C
And all you ever learned from them

Bm
B7
Until you grew much older

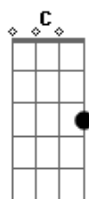

C
Did not compare with when they said

G
This is your brand new brother

C
This is your brand new brother

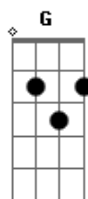

C
This is your brand new brother
