

Elton John - Pinky

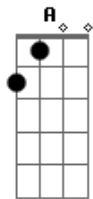

Tom: A

A - E - D - A

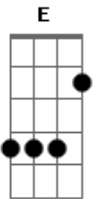

A
I don't want to wake you
Bm E D A
But I'd like to tell you that I love you
Dbm Gbm
That the candlelight fell like a crescent
D A Bm E
Upon your feather pillow
A
For there's more ways than one
Bm E D A
And the ways of the world are a blessing
Dbm
For when Pinky's dreaming
Gbm D
She owes the world nothing
A Bm E
And her silence keeps us guessing
Bm E
Pinky's as perfect as the Fourth of July
Bm E

Quilted and timeless, seldom denied
D A B
The trial and the error of my master plan
E D
A C
Now she rolls like the dice in a poor gambler's hands
A
You don't want to tell me
Bm E D A
But somehow you've guessed that I know
Dbm Gbm
Oh when dawn came this morning
D A
Bm E
You discovered a feeling that burned like a flame in your soul
A
For there's toast and honey
Bm E D A
And there's breakfast in bed on a tray
Dbm Gbm
Oh it's ten below zero
D A Bm
E
And we're about to abandon our plans for the day
