

Elton John - Religion

He still drinks but he does believe. Intro: Chords: G Melody: BDG CDG B D G CDG BDG CDG BDG Chorus: Religion, you do the best you can. G Well he could almost taste the money but he was sitting in a We all make the same mistakes, we're gonna wind up with the den of thieves. G C G Religion, oh you do the best you can. Looking for the great awakening trying to find a way to G (play But that's when he got religion, and the light went on inside. We all make the same mistakes, we're gonna wind up with the C C He said somebody up there likes me. Now he's working for the guide. She was silent as he paid her but the thanks she got was next He got drunk but he don't remember that he'd been drinking in And as her car pulled out of the motel, she felt the presence ٥f a bar downtown. someone. Am And that's when she got religion in the front of a compact When he thought he heard a choir of angels singing in the Tiki Ford. Lounge. Am And that's when he got religion from no salesman on TV. Just a gentle voice on the stereo. Now she's a working girl C G who loves Just a tap on the shoulder in the parking lot. the Lord.

Acordes

