

Elton John - Talking Old Soldiers

```
Tom: Eb
  Cm
why hello
say can i buy you another glass of beer well thanks alot, thats kind of you its nice to know you care
            G7
these days theres so much going on Ab7 G7
                  Cm
no one seems to want to know Ab7 G7
              Cm Cm F
I may be just an old soldier to some Ab7
                       G7
but i know how it feels to grow old yeah thats right
you can see me here most every night youll always see me staring at the wall and the lights
Ab7 G7
                    Cm
funny i remeber though its years ago id say G7
                     Cm
id stand at the bar with my friends whove passed away G7
                             Cm
                                  Cm
and drink three times the beer that {\tt i} can drink today G7
     Ah7
yes i know how it feels to grow old
```

```
i know what theyre saying son there goes old mad joe again well i maybe mad at that ive seen enough to make a man go out his brain well do they know what its like to have a grave yard as a cause thats where they are boy all of them dont seem likely that ill get friends like that again well its time ive moved off but its been great just listening to you and i might even see you the next time im passing through G7
                         Cm Cm
youre right threse so much going on
no one seems to want to know Ab7 G7
so keep well, keep well old friend
          Cm Cm F
and have another drink on me Ab7
just ignore all the others
                 Cm
youve got your memories
                    Ab7 G7 Cm
youve got your memories
```

Acordes

