

Elton John - The Measure Of a Man

Tom: Bb
Intro: He plays Eand Gnotes, but you can stay in Cas well

C
These battered hand are all you own
Am
This broken heart has turned to stone
F C
Go hang your glory on the wall
Am Em
There comes a time when castles fall
F Em Dm C G
And all that's left is shifting in the sand
C Dm
You're out of time, you're out of place
Em
Look at your face
F G C
That's the measure of a man

C
This coat that fits you like a glove
Am
These dirty streets you learned to love
F C
So welcome back my long lost friend
Am Em
You've been to hell and back again
F Em Dm C G
God alone knows how you crossed that span
C Dm
Back on the beat, back to the start
Em
Trust in your heart
F G C
That's the measure of a man

C Dm Em
It's the fire in the eyes, the lines on the hand
F G C

It's the things you understand
Am Em
Permanent ties from which you once ran
F G Eb Cm
That's the measure of a man

Eb
You've come full circle, now you're home
Cm
Without the gold, without the chrome
Ab Eb
And this is where you've always been
Cm Ab
You had to lose so you could win
Ab Gm Fm Eb Bb
And rise above your troubles while you can
Eb Cm
Now you can love, now you can lose
Gm
Now you can choose
Ab Bb Eb
That's the measure of a man

Eb Fm Gm
It's the fire in the eyes, the lines on the hand
Ab Bb Eb
It's the things you understand
...

REPEAT THE SAME SEQUENCE, REMEMBER THAT IN THIS SECOND PART THE KEY LIFTS TO Eb
The permanent ties from which you once ran
That's the measure of a man
You've come full circlce, now you're home
Without the gold, without the chrome
And this is where you've always been
You had to lose so you could win
And rise above your troubles while you can
Now you can love, now you can lose
Now you can choose
That's the measure of a man

Acordes

