

Elvis Presley - I've Lost You

Tom: Bb
Intro: Bb Bb Gm F Eb Dm F Eb Dm Cm Bb

Bb F Gm F
Lying by your side I watch you sleeping
Eb Cm F Eb Dm Cm Bb
And in your face the sweetness of a child

Bb F Gm F
Murmuring the dreams you won't recapture
Eb Cm F F7
Though it will haunt the corners of you mind

Bb
Oh, I've lost you tho' you're near me
Bb7

And your body's still as kind

Eb
I've lost you on the journey
F

But I can't remember where or when

Bb F Gm F
Who can tell when summer turns to autumn
Eb Cm F
And who can point the moment love grows cold

Eb Dm Cm Bb

Bb F Gm F
Softly happening the joy is over
Eb Cm F F7
Though why it's gone neither of us know

Bb
Oh, I've lost you yes, I've lost you
Bb7

I can't reach you anymore

Eb
We ought to talk it over now
F

But reason can't stand in for feeling Oh Bb

Bb Gm F Eb Dm F F7

Bb
Oh, I've lost you yes, I've lost you
Bb7

I can't reach you anymore

Eb
We ought to talk it over now
F

But reason can't stand in for feeling

Bb F Gm F
Six o'clock the baby will be crying
Eb Cm F

And you will stumble, sleepy, to the door

Eb Dm Cm Bb

Bb F Gm F
In the chill and sun gray of the morning
Eb Cm F F7
We play the parts that we have learned to well

Bb
Oh, I've lost you yes, I've lost you
Bb7

Though you won't admit it's so

Eb
I've lost you on the journey
F

But can't remember where or when Oh Bb
