

Elvis Presley - Kentucky rain

Tom: C

[C]Seven lonely [G]days and a [C]dozen towns a[F]go,
I [C]reached out one [F]night and you were [C]gone.[C] [F]Don't know why you'd [G]run, what you're [C]running to or [Am]from,
[D]all I know is I want to bring you [G]home.

So I'm [C]walking in the [G]rain, [C]thumbing for a [F]ride on this
[C]lonely Ken[F]tucky [C]backroad.[C]
I've [F]loved you much too [G]long and [C]my love's too [Am]strong to [D]let you go, never knowing what went [G]wrong.[F]

[D]Kentucky rain keeps pouring [C]do[Bm]wn [Em]and up ahead's
another [Am]town
[G]that [F]I'lll [Em]go [F]walking [C]thru [F]with the [C]rain
in my [Em]shoes,[Am][Em][C]
[Am]searchin [Am]for [F]you [G]in the cold Kentucky [C]rain,
[Em][F]
in the [G]cold Kentucky [C]rain.

[C]Showed your photo[G]raph to some [C]old gray bearded [F]men
sitting [C]on a bench out[F]side a gen'ral [C]store.[C]
They said "[F]Yes, she's been [G]here" but their [C]mem'ry wasn't [Am]clear, was it [D]yesterday, no, wait the day be[G]fore.

So I [C]fin'ly got a [G]ride with a [C]preacher man who [F]asked: "Where you [C]bound on such a dark
[F]after[C]noon?"[C]
As we [F]drove on thru the [G]rain as he l[C]istened
I ex[Am]plained and he [D]left me with a prayer that I'd find [G]you.[F]

[D]Kentucky rain keeps pouring [C]do[Bm]wn [Em]and up ahead's
another [Am]town
[G]that [F]I'lll [Em]go [F]walking [C]thru [F]with the [C]rain
in my [Em]shoes,[Am][Em][C]
[Am]searchin [Am]for [F]you [G]in the cold Kentucky [C]rain,
[Em][F]
in the [G]cold Kentucky [C]rain[Em][F], in the [G]cold...
