

Elvis Presley - True Love Travels On a Gravel Road

Tom: C

True Love Travels on a Gravel Road

C How many Girls choose Em cotton dress worlds

F When they could have satins and lace C

And stand by her man, never once lettinG shade touch her Face G

C How many hearts could live throuGh all the winters

F We've known and still not be cold C

C True love travels on a Gravel road. C

Love is a stranGer and hearts are in danGer

F On smooth streets paved with Gold C

For true love travels on a Gravel road.

Down throuGh the years we've had hard times and tears

But they only helped our love Grow

And we'll stay toGether no matter how stronG the wind blows

Not once have I seen your blue eyes Filled with envy

Or stray From the one that you hold

Oh true love travels on a Gravel road.

Love is a stranGer and hearts are in danGer

All throuGh streets paved with Gold

For true love travels on a Gravel road.

Yeah, true love travels on a Gravel road. Mmmm

True love travels on a Gravel road.

True love travels on a Gravel road.
