                                                            I'm olding I'm graying
Jaiden oh Jaiden
                                                            I still feel the same
You're fading, you're fading
                                                            Love only plays for keeps, always forever.
 Dbm
You take my heart away when
                                                            So I'll steal your heart another day
I think about the days when
                                                            And we can live it in this holiday
              Am
we were like ourselves, always together.
                                                            And we can find ourselves searching for, the same thing.
Jaiden oh Jaiden
                                                            Oh my dreams, just dreams
Mistakes that I keep making
                                                            Are really useless
   Dbm
You've taken what was sacred
                                                                  Dbm
                                                            When it comes to spending time with you miss
And made it go away
                                                            You make all my dreams come true, without reason.
Cause that's just how karma works, always forever
                                                            I wish you were here
So I'll steal your heart another day
                                                                 Am
                                                            wooaah-ho woooaah-ho
And we can live it in this holiday
                                                            I wish you were here
And we can find ourselves searching for, the same thing.
                                                               Am E wooaah-ho
Oh my dreams, just dreams
                                                            And all my flowers,
Are really useless
     Dbm
When it comes to spending time with you miss
                                                            Seem to lose their fragrance
You make all my dreams come true, without reason.
                                                            Living like a child,
                                                                  E Dbm
I wish you were here
                                                            With no imagination
  Am E
wooaah-ho woooaah-ho
                                                            My world, my world spins for you
                                                                 Dbm
I wish you were here
                                                            And just know that I will always adore you
  Am E
                                                            Because your face is imprinted, on my eyes.
Jaiden oh Jaiden
                                                            I wish you were here
                                                                  Am
I'll say it again,
                                                            wooaah-ho woooaah-ho
                                                            I wish you were here
The pain goes away when Am
I mutter your name
                                                            wooaah-ho woooaah-ho
I pretend that we were, always together.
                                                            I wish you were here oh, oohoh yea, yeayeeyeaah
                                                            I wish you were here
Jaiden oh Jaiden
                                                                  Am
I'm aging, I'm aging
                                                            Wooaah-ho woooa, Jaiden...
