

Emerson Lake And Palmer - Take a Pebble

tom: G

Em Gbm
Just take a pebble and cast it to the sea
Em Gbm
Then watch the ripples that unfold into me
A G D G
My face spill so gently into your eyes
A C Bm E
Disturbing the waters of our lives

Em Gbm
Shreds of our memories are lying on your grass
Em Gbm
Wounded words of laughter are graveyards of the past
a5 g d5/a g
Photografs are gray and torn scattered in your fieldsz

a5 c bm/f# e
Letters of your memories are not real

Em Gbm
Wear sadness on your shouders like a worn-out overcoat
Em Gbm
In pockets creased and tattered hang the rags of your hopes
A G D G
The daybreak is your midnight the colours have all died
A C Bm E
Disturbing the waters of our lives
C Bm
Of our lives
C Bm
Lives
C
Lives
E
Of our lives
