

Ennio Morricone - Larena

Hey folks, this is my guitar rendition of part of the Kill Bill tune, "L?Arena," which played as the Bride (Uma Thurman) attempts to escape her live burial by busting out of coffin. On the soundtrack, it?s played by a trumpet, but in the movie you can hear a version played right before she?s buried, when Budd says "This is for breaking my heart?"

Please try to rate honestly, I worked really hard on this.
