

The Everly Brothers - Any Single Solitary Heart

Tom: C

Am F G C

You?ve lost at love before you never closed that door F D7 Bb7 G

This time it hurt you for the last time Am F G C

Only the lonely know the pain of letting go F D7 Bb7 G

Before you say no more take my advice

C Em

Just ask any single solitary heart F C

Why the winter night is longer

How a love can fall apart

C F
Why the world keeps getting colder
C Dm C
Or where a teardrop starts
G C Em F
Just ask any single solitary heart

Am F G C
Don?t ask the stars above they?ve never been in love
F D7 Bb7 G
They?ll just remind you of the first time
Am F G C
When you had confidence in love?s sweet innocence
F D7 Bb7 G
Now you have evidence that love can be unkind

Acordes

