

Exiles of Eden - Echoes Of Dust (Acoustic)

tom:
Intro: Gm F Cm Eb

I came from the silence
I rose from the ground
A breath in the stillness
A life to be found

I walk with the questions
I bleed through the rust
But I am still breathing
An echo of dust

If I fade, will You still find me?
When I break, will You still stay?
I am nothing ? yet You hold me
Even dust still calls Your name

The wind knows my story
The earth holds my bones
The fire that made me
Still burns though I roam

I fall like the ashes

I drown in the flood
But I am still singing
An echo of dust

If I fade, will You still find me?
When I break, will You still stay?
I am nothing ? yet You hold me
Even dust still calls Your name

You remember what I've forgotten
You rebuild what I let die
From the soil, You shaped a soul
You gave dust a place to rise

If I fade, will You still find me?
When I break, will You still stay?
I am nothing ? yet You hold me
Even dust still calls Your name

I came from the silence
And I'll return in trust
But I am still Yours
An echo of dust
