

Faber Drive - You And I Tonight

Tom: C
                                                      Am
Tonight a candle lights the room,
Tonight it's only me and you,
Your skin like gravity
Is pulling every part of me,
I fall, you and collide
(Chorus)
What if I stay forever?
What if there's no goodbye?
Frozen for a moment here in time,
If you tell me the sky is falling,
Or say that the stars collide,
The only thing that matters in my life,
Is you and I tonight
(Verse Two)
Our eyes close the candle burns away,
But I know the fire still remains
This love is all we need
We fit together perfectly,
I fall, you and I collide
```
