

Falcão - My Little Coffer Of Love (Meu Cofrinho de Amor)

Tom: G and to kill my lonelinesssss

You are my sky, you are my life, my weight, you're my measure Come back my well, my love, my life my little coffer of love I'm waiting for you While I am waitting for you come back fast because my heart my soul is only burning is almost stopping in this fire very fire I hope to give you many kisses embraces The times I remember with jealousy to feel your heat your little face, your hard smell I want to see you hug you counter you your little way of kissing me dying fast of love.
 I am almost dying from will of embrace your little body
