                                                                  Clap until you hands hurt,
                                                                  Standing ovations or boos,
                                                                  Watch us until we blur,
Walk off into the sunset
(guitar 2)
                                                                  Tell rock and roll I'm alone again,
                                                                  I want to put the Midwest home again,
(guitar 3) (Eighth-note strumming)
                                                                  Your time has passed
                                                                  They say never means never,
                                                                  So the fast dance won't last
(pre-chorus) "forever..."
                                                                  But never means forever
                                                                  Never means forever
(guitar 3) (Acoustic)
                                                                  Alpha Dog and Oh, Oh, Omegalomaniac Alpha Dog and Oh, Omegamegalo
                            First Ending
                                           Second Ending
                                                                  Welcome to the new deja vu,
                                                                  I can almost see the wizard through the curtains,
(guitar 3)
                                                                  Alpha Dog and Oh, Oh, Omegalomaniac
                                   First and Third Ending
                                                                  We must have the best coast, tell the best jokes
                                                                  We must make it hard to look so easy
(intro riff)
                                                                  Doing something so hard
                                                                  You must see my way
(quitar 1) (Tremolo Picked)
                                                                  They squint when they look at me
First Time Only
                                                                  I'm a, I'm a star
                                                                  I'm a, I'm a star
                                                                  I'm a star
(guitar 3) (Eight-note strumming)
                                                                  Oh, I'm a star
                                                    Last Note
                                                                  Alpha Dog and Oh, Oh, Omegalomaniac
                                                                  Alpha Dog and Oh, Omegamegalo
Verse) "We must have the best coast, tell the best jokes..."
                                                                  Welcome to the new deja vu,
                                                                  I can almost see the wizard through the curtains,
(quitar 1)
                                                                  Alpha Dog and Oh, Oh, Omegalomaniac
                                                                  You're not the first, or the last,
(guitar 2)
                                                                  But you're possibly the prettiest
                                                                  He's a fighter past his prime
                                                                  He's in the gutter waving his hands
(guitar 3) (Eighth-note strumming)
                                                                  "I'm just fine'
                                                                  Not the first, or the last,
                                                                  But you're possibly the prettiest
(pre-c7horus) "Forever..."
