

Fall Out Boy - Headphones

tom:
 (Gbm Ab A Bm Db D)

Landing on a runway in Chicago
 And I'm grounding all my dreams of ever really seeing California
 Because I know what's in between is something sensual
 In such non-conventional ways

Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 Tonight I'm writing you a million miles away
 Tonight is all about We miss you miss you
 Tonight is all about We miss you

And I can't forget your style or your cynicism
 Somehow it was like you were the first to listen to Everything we said
 My smile's an open wound without you and my hands
 Are tied to pages inked to

Acordes

Bring you back

Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 Tonight I'm writing you a million miles away
 Tonight is all about We miss you
 Tonight is all about We miss you NOW

These friends are, new friends are golden
 These friends are, new friends are golden
 These friends are, new friends are golden
 These friends are, new friends are

Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 Tonight the headphones will deliver you the words that
 I can't say
 These friends are, new friends are golden
