

Fall Out Boy - Nobody Puts Baby In The Corner

Tom: A
                                                                   (interlude) chords underneath: A-A, F, A
   Tuning: Standard
                                                                      (A \times 2)
                                                                      (F)
   Drink down that gin and kerosene,
   And come spit on bridges with me,
(strummina)
                                                                   So wear me like a locket around your throat.
                                                                   I'll weigh you down.
   Just to keep us warm.
   Light a match to leave me be.
                                                                   I'll watch you choke.
                                                                   You look so good in blue.
                                                                   You look so good in blue.
                                                                   [x3]
Light a match to leave me be.
                                                                   (interlude continues)
       I'll keep my jealousy close,
                                                                   Chorus x3:
       'Cause it's all mine.
                                                                   Keep quiet,
       And if you say this makes you happy,
                                                                   Nothing comes as easy as you.
                                                                   Can I lay in your bed all day?
                                                                   (acappella 1st time)
                         m m m
Then I'm not the only one lying.
                                                                   I'll be your best kept secret,
                                                                   And your biggest mistake.
                                                                   The hand behind this pen relives a failure every day.
Chorus x2:
Keen quiet.
                                                                   end/outro:
Nothing comes as easy as you.
Can I lay in your bed all day,
I'll be your best kept secret,
And your biggest mistake?
The hand behind this pen relives a failure every day.
                                                                   lyrics:
                                                                   Drink down that gin and kerosene,
                                                                   And come spit on bridges with me,
       I'll keep my jealousy close, 'Cause it's all mine.
                                                                   Just to keep us warm.
                                                                   Light a match to leave me be.
       And if you say this makes you happy,
                                                                   Light a match to leave me be.
                                                                   I'll keep my jealousy close,
                                                                   'Cause it's all mine.
          m m m
                         m m m
                                                                   And if you say this makes you happy,
Then I'm not the only one lying.
                                                                   Then I'm not the only one lying.
                                                                   [Chorus: x2]
                                                                   Keep quiet,
 Drink down that gin and kerosene,
                                                                   Nothing comes as easy as you.
   And come spit on bridges with me,
                                                                   Can I lay in your bed all day,
                                                                   I'll be your best kept secret,
                                                                   And your biggest mistake?
(strumming)
                                                                   The hand behind this pen relives a failure every day
   Just to keep us warm.
                                                                   And I'll keep my jealousy close,
   Light a match to leave me be.
                                                                   'Cause it's all mine.
                                                                   And if you say this makes you happy, Then I'm not the only one lying.
Light a match to leave me be.
                                                                   Drink down that gin and kerosene,
                                                                   And come spit on bridges with me,
                                                                   Just to keep us warm.
                                                                   Light a match to leave me be.
Chorus x2:
                                                                   Light a match to leave me be.
Keep quiet,
Nothing comes as easy as you.
                                                                   [Chorus x2]
Can I lay in your bed all day, I'll be your best kept secret,
                                                                   So wear me like a locket around your throat.
And your biggest mistake?
                                                                   I'll weigh you down.
The hand behind this pen relives a failure every day.
                                                                   I'll watch you choke.
                                                                   You look so good in blue.
                                                                   You look so good in blue.
                                                                   [x3]
                                                                   [Chorus: x3]
