                                                            We're going down, down in an earlier round
                                                            And sugar, we're goin' down swinging
                                                            Dance, dance, we're falling apart to halftime
They say the captain
Goes down with the ship
                                                            Dance, dance, and these are the lives you'd love to lead
So, when the world ends
                                                            Dance, this is the way they'd love
                                                            If they knew how misery loved me
This ain't a scene, it's a goddamn arms race
Will God go down with it?
