

Feist - Gatekeeper

Tom: C

Well it's time to begin as the summer sets in
 It's the scene
 You set for new lovers
 You play your part painting in a new start
 But each gate will open another
 June July and August said
 "It's probably hard to plan ahead"
 June July and August said
 "It's better to bask in each others"
 Gatekeeper seasons wait for your nod
 Gatekeeper you held your breath
 Made the summer go on and on

Well they tried to stay in from the cold and wind
 Making love and making their dinner
 Only to find that the love that they grew in the summer
 Froze

February April said
 "Don't be fooled by the summer again"
 February April said
 "That half of the year, well we'll never be friends"

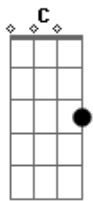

Gatekeeper seasons wait for your nod
 Gatekeeper you held your breath
 Made the winter go on and on

Gatekeeper, Gatekeeper, Gatekeeper
 Seasons wait for your nod
