Every night that goes between D G
I feel a little less A Bm
As you slowly go away from me D G
This is only another test A Bm

And every night you do not come D G
Your softness fades away A Bm
Did I ever really care that much? D G
Is there anything left to say? A Bm

D G
I haven't felt this way I feel
A Bm
Since many a year ago
D G
But in those years and the lifetimes past
A Bm
I did not deal with the road

D G
And I did not deal with you, I know
A Bm
Though the love has always been
D G
So I search to find an answer here
A Bm
So I can trully win
