

Florence and The Machine - Mermaids

tom:

Intro: Dm F G Dm
Dm F G

Dm F G
..I thought that I was hungry for love
Dm F G
..Maybe I'm just hungry for blood
Dm G
..Tear from a woman on the shore
Am C
..You prairie ghost on a cottage hall
Dm G
..Oh, the mermaids have sharp teeth
Am C
..Razor blades all in your feet

(Dm F A7)
(Dm F A7 G)

Dm F
England is only ever grey or green
A7
The girls glitter striding

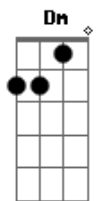

Glorious and coatless in the rain
Dm F
..I remember fallin' through these streets
A7
Somewhat out of place, if not for the drunkenness

Dm F
It makes my chest hurt to think of it
A7
Not of regret, but of missing that

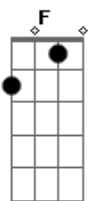

Dm F
Cheerful oblivion
A7 G
Cheerful oblivion

Dm F
It was not all pain and pavement slick with rain
Am G
And shinin' under lights from shitty clubs and doing shitty drugs
Dm F Am G
And huggin' girls that smelled like Britney Spears and coconuts

And with your mermaid hair and your teeth so sharp

You crawled from the sea to break that sailor's heart

You only get one night up on the shore

So dance like you've never danced before

And the dance floor is filling up with blood

But, oh, Lord, you've never been so in love

Dm F Am G
.....Cheerful oblivion
Dm F
Cheerful oblivion

Cheerful oblivion

F
And the mermaids, they come once a year
G
They climb the struts of Brighton Pier
Am
They come to drink, they come to dance
Em
To sacrifice a human heart
F G
And the world is so much wilder than you think
Am
You haven't seen nothin' 'til you seen an English girl drink
