Florence and The Machine - Patricia

Tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

Am

Oh Patricia, you've always been my North Star And I have to tell you something I'm still afraid of the dark But you take my hand in your hand From you the flowers grow And do you understand with every seed you sow You make this cold world beautiful?

[Pré-Refrão]

Am C You told me all doors are open to the believer Dm Em I believe her, I believe her, I believe her Am C You told me all doors are open to the believer Dm Em I believe her, I believe her, I believe her

[Refrão]

AmGFGOh Patricia, you've always been my North Star, ohAmGFGOh Patricia, you've always been my North Star, oh

(Am G F G) (Am G F G)

[Segunda Parte]

Am G Well, you're a 'real man', and you do what you can F G You only take as much as you can grab with two hands Am G With your big heart, you praise God above F But how's that working out for you, honey? G Do you feel loved?

An

[Pré-Refrão]

Acordes

Dn

ukulele-chords.com

Em

loved?)

Dm

I believe her, I believe her, I believe her (Do you feel loved?) Am C She told me all doors are open to the believer (Do you feel loved?) Dm I believe her, I believe her, I believe her [Refrão] F Am Oh Patricia, you've always been my North Star, oh F Am Oh Patricia, you've always been my North Star, oh (DFDFDF)

Am C She told me all doors are open to the believer (Do you feel

Fm

С I drink too much coffee and think of you often D In a city where reality has long been forgotten Fm And are you afraid? 'Cause I'm terrified But you remind me that it's such a wonderful thing to love D Em It's such a wonderful thing to love It's such a wonderful thing to love D It's such a wonderful thing to love D It's such a wonderful thing (CDEmDC)

C D Em It's such a wonderful thing to love D C It's such a wonderful thing to love D Em It's such a wonderful thing to love D C It's such a wonderful thing to love D It's such a wonderful thing

