C Am
Daylight, I dream of you softly
Em F
I wrote you a letter that will never reach you
C Am
In Montreal, the days are much colder there
Em F
Now you grow older there, without me
C Am
On the lookout, baby won't you look out?
Em F
A car full of raccoons, I think that I'm crazy
C Am
And downtown, the bar lights illuminate
Em F
Lost in a cityscape where i try to find you
G Am
You walk like a miracle, bathing in starlight
C G
Your voice burning holes in the frame
G Am
I danced in the parking lot, cried in the taxi home
C G
Cause I still remembered your name
C E F
And oh, I'm not in love anymore
Fm
Anymore
C E F
But I will keep you close to me for-
Fm
Ever

Moonlight, I dream of you endlessly
Em F
Drowning in reverie, waiting for morning
C Am
Dim light, I'm drunk at the bar again
Em F
Holding a stranger's hand, a crowd
G
With no faces
G Am
And there you are, beautiful just like the first time
C G
You reach out, I'm shaking again
G Am
You're gone in a moment, you leave me alone
C G
But I swear you were real in my hands
C E F
And oh, I'm not in love anymore
Fm
Anymore
C E
But I will keep you close to me
F Fm
For--ever
C Am
Well I know these words might mean nothing now
Em
While I'm stuck in this ghost town
F
Your softness still haunts me
C Am
Someday I'll find my way out of here
Em
If you don't change your mind, my dear
F
I'll take you with me
