Intro: C C Cadd9 Am Aadd9
A Em Em Em F

C Am
Daylight, I dream of you softly
Em F

I wrote you a letter that will never reach you
C Am

In Montreal, the days are much colder there
Em F

Now you grow older there, without me
C Am

On the lookout, baby won't you look out?
Em F

A car full of raccoons, I think that I'm crazy
C Am

And downtown, the bar lights illuminate
Em F

Lost in a cityscape where i try to find you
G Am

You walk like a miracle, bathing in starlight
C G

Your voice burning holes in the frame
G Am

I danced in the parking lot, cried in the taxi home
C G

Cause I still remembered your name
C E F

And oh, I'm not in love anymore
Fm

Any more
C E F

But I will keep you close to me for-
Fm

Ever
C Am

Moonlight, I dream of you endlessly
Em F

Drowning in reverie, waiting for morning
C Am

Dim light, I'm drunk at the bar again
Em F

Holding a stranger's hand, a crowd
G

With no faces
G Am

And there you are, beautiful just like the first time
C G

You reach out, I'm shaking again
G Am

You're gone in a moment, you leave me alone
C G

But I swear you were real in my hands
C E F

And oh, I'm not in love anymore
Fm

Any more
C E

But I will keep you close to me
F Fm

For--ever
C Am

Well I know these words might mean nothing now
Em

While I'm stuck in this ghost town
F

Your softness still haunts me
C Am

Someday I'll find my way out of here
Em

If you don't change your mind, my dear
F

I'll take you with me
