

Flume - Never Be Like You (feat. Kai)

Please just look me in my face
Intro: C Dm7 Am F
                                                           Tell me everything's okay
What I would do to take away
                                                           'Cause I got it
            Am
This fear of being loved, allegiance to the pain
                                                           Ooh, never be like you
           C
                       Dm7
Now I fucked up and I miss you
                                                           I'm only human, can't you see?
              Am F
I'll never be like you
                                                           I made, I made a mistake
                                                                  Am
                                                           Please just look me in my face
I would give anything to change
              Am
                                                           Tell me everything's okay
This fickle-minded heart that loves fake shiny things
                                                            C Dm7
                                                           'Cause I got it

Now I fucked up and I miss you
                                                           Ooh, never be like you
              Am F
I'll never be like you
                                                           I'm falling on my knees
        C
I'm only human, can't you see?
                                                               Dm7
                                                           Forgive me, I'm a fucking fool
I made, I made a mistake
                                                           I'm begging, darling, please
  Am
Please just look me in my face
                                                                 Dm7
                                                           Absolve me of my sins, won't you?
Tell me everything's okay

                                                           'Cause I got it
How do I make you wanna stay?
                                                           Ooh, never be like you
Hate sleeping on my own, missing the way you taste
                                                                C
                                                           I'm only human, can't you see?
           C Dm7
Now I fucked up and I miss you
                                                            Dm7
                                                           I made, I made a mistake
              Am F
I'll never be like you
                                                           Please just look me in my face
Stop looking at me with those eyes
                                                           Tell me everything's okay

              Am
                                                           'Cause I got it
Am F
Like I could disappear and you wouldn't care why
Now I fucked up and I miss you
                                                           Ooh, never be like you
              Am F
I'll never be like you
                                                           Baby, baby please believe me
         C
                                                            Am F
I'm only human, can't you see?
                                                           C'mon, take it easy
  Dm7
I made, I made a mistake
                                                           Please don't ever leave me
                                                           Ooh, never be like you
