Tom: A

This is my first tab so i hope it's right. This is the chorus part. The verse and else i'm doing now. If you guys have any questions my email is . Enjoy!

Tuning:DADGBE

and i.....am sooo...lost with words.....

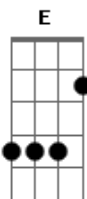

and i.....am sooo...overwhelmed

and that's it. on the g string, you don't have to put ur finger on the second fret or first, that's the way i do. You can just use the DAD strings,but if you listen closly you hear the 2 and 1 fret being played in the chorus. Hope you like it.
