

Fontaines D.C. - The Couple Across The Way

tom:
E
Intro: A7M E A7M E
A7M E A7M E

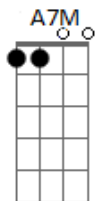

A7M E
Babe, it feels like it's all happened
A7M E
Twenty-three years of the same
A7M E
And I'm sorry 'bout this morning
A7M E
For the damage I will pay

A7M E
All the mirrors face the walls and
A7M E
I wake just to long for bed
A7M E
Love what's got you so down low?
A7M E
The saddest tongue is in your head

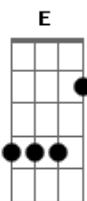

(A7M E A7M E)
(A7M E A7M E)

A7M E
I forget the thrill of lies
A7M E
The truth escaping through the eyes, now
A7M E
You use voices on the phone

A7M E
That once were spent on me

A7M E
The world has changed beyond our doorstep
A7M E
People talk and dress so strange
A7M E
I don't know a neighbour's name
A7M E
And all of life is rearranged

A7M E
Nice to know that you're still caring
A7M E
Well enough to raise your voice
A7M E
But if we must bring up the past then
A7M E
Please don't speak to me of choice

(A7M E A7M E)
(A7M E A7M E)

A7M E
Across the way moved in a pair
A7M E
With passion in its prime
A7M E
Maybe they look through to us
A7M E
And hope that's them in time
