

Foo Fighters - Saint Cecilia

Tom: E

There ain't no secrets anymore

My name's been hanging on the hook outside your door

Just an old eye sore

I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore

Bring me some healing

Saint Cecilia, carry me home to your house of broken bones

You're out of sight, I'm out of mind

Been sitting watch your pictures drying on the line

Just of game of mine

I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore

Bring me some healing

Saint Cecilia, carry me home to your house of broken bones

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by

I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore

Bring me some healing

Saint Cecilia, carry me home to your house of broken bones

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by

I know no matter what I say

Days'll comes and go

No matter what I say

Nothing's set in stone

No matter what I say

Days go by
