Cosmoman bolo

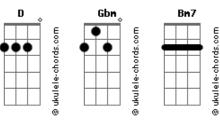

(F#m, Bm7)

Pushing boundaries

Pushing boundaries
I spy with my glassy eyes
A turning point to my whole life
Rising in these palm trees
That's me

Wearing trunks in december Writing to remember

Acordes

Leaking on the road side Minding the steps, minding the crap Praying for my good angel Praying for my know-how

Planning my costumes for the next carnival That's my heart Distressed and colorful A burning shuttle in the deep blue A sparkling water swimming pool
