Cosmoman bolo

(F#m, Bm)

Pushing boundaries

I spy with my glassy eyes

A turning point to my whole life

Rising in these palm trees

That's me

Wearing trunks in december

Writing to remember

Leaking on the road side

Minding the steps, minding the crap

Praying for my good angel

Praying for my know-how

Planning my costumes for the next carnival

That's my heart

Distressed and colorful

A burning shuttle in the deep blue

A sparkling water swimming pool
