Bm D7
The echoes from the past
Came knocking on my door
Memories that remain are
Still broke on the floor
The cold has arrived
And it never went away
While I struggle to breathe
The night changes the day

[Solo 1] Bm D A G Gb

Bm D
The emptines surrounds
My consciousness again
Another day has fallen by
How do I break those chains?
I wish the wind could take
All those leaves away
As I wait for the fall
To set me free from this pain!
