

Frank Sinatra - Rain In My Heart

```
How could I know, my love
Bm Gm7 Gb7 Gb7
                        tom:
                             [Intro] Bm
                                                        I was a toy, only a game to you?
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                   Bm
                                                        How could you go, my love
                                                        Bm Gm7
                                                        Without a thought of what I'm going through?
My eyes are dry, my love
                            Gb7
             Gm7
                                   Gb7
Since you've been gone, I haven't shed a tear
                                                        [Ponte]
Bm Bm
I'll never cry, my love
                                                       Gm7
                                                                  Em
                        Gb7
                                                       How can I forget
           Gm7
Though every day seems like a hundred years
                                                        Gbm7
                                                       I still love you so
[Ponte]
                                                       Em Em Dbm7 Gb7
                                                       It echoes each time that I hear
Gm7
For I'm just a fool
                                                        [Refrão]
  Gbm7
Who clings to his pride
                                                                 Cm
                                                       The sound of rain in my heart
 Em Em Dbm7
But when I'm alone
                                                             Cm F7
    Gb7
                                                        From the tears that I hide
I can hear
                                                       Ebm Dm7 Gm7
                                                       So it tears me apart
[Refrão]
                                                             Dm7 Gm7
                                                        I still keep them inside
Gb7 F#7M
        Bm
                                                        Cm F7
The sound of rain in my heart
                                                       But I can't escape from the
                                                       Cm F7 Gm Eb7M Dm7
    Bm E7
                                                       Sound of the rain in my heart
Of the tears that I hide
                                                       G7 G7M Cm F7
Dm Dbm7 Gbm7
                                                       I hear that rain in my heart
And it tears me apart
      Dbm7 Gbm7
                                                            Cm F7
'Cause I keep them inside
                                                        Of the tears that I hide
                                                       Ebm Dm7 Gm7
     F7
I can't get away
                                                       And it tears me apart
                E7
       Bm
                                                             Dm7 Gm7
From the sound of the rain in my heart
                                                        'Cause I keep them inside
                                                       [Interlúdio] Cm F7 Cm F7 Ebm Dm7 Gm7 Dm7 Gm7 Cm F7 Cm
( Dm7 Gm7 Gb7 Gb7 )
[Segunda Parte]
```

Acordes

