tom:
                                                            And I'm alone with you
Intro: Gbm B7 Gbm B7 E
                                                               F7
                                                            The time is right, your perfume fills my head, the stars get [Primeira Parte]
                                                            And, oh, the night's so blue

Gbm B7
I know I stand in line, until you think you have the time
                                                                                               Gbm
                                                                                                                R7
                                                            And then I'll go and spoil it all, by saying something stupid
          Gbm B7 Gbm B7
To spend an evening with me
                                                                    E E E E

                                 Gbm
And if we go someplace to dance, I know that there's a chance
                                                            [Solo] E E E E Gbm B7 E
You won't be leaving with me
And afterwards we drop into a quiet little place
                                                            [Terceira Parte]
And have a drink or two
                                                            The time is right, your perfume fills my head, the stars get
And then I'll go and spoil it all, by saying something stupid
                                                            And, oh, the night's so blue

I can see it in your eyes, that you despise the same old lies
You heard the night before

                                                            [Final]
And though it's just a line to you, for me it's true

It never seemed so right before

                                                            I love you
I practice every day to find some clever lines to say

But then I think I'll wait until the evening gets late
