

Frank Turner - 1933

tom:

Intro: Am C C C G

[Primeira Parte]

Am C C
Stop asking musicians what they think

C Am
He said softly as he poured himself a second drink

C C C
And outside, the world slipped over the brink

Am C C
We all thought we had nothing to lose

C
That we could trust in crossed fingers and horseshoes

Am C C
That everything would work out, no matter what we choose

[Pré-Refrão]

G C F
The first time it was a tragedy, the second time was a farce

G C F
Outside it's nineteen-thirtythree so I'm hitting the bar

[Refrão]

C G
But I don't know what's going on anymore

Am
The world outside is burning with a brand new light

F
But it isn't one that makes me feel warm

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

[Segunda Parte]

Am C
If I was from the greatest generation I'd be pissed

C C
Surveying the world slipping back to this

Am C C C
I'd be screaming at my grand kids: "We already did this"

Am C
Be suspicious of simple answers

C C
That shit's for fascists and maybe teenagers

Am C C

You can't fix the world if all you have is a hammer

[Pré-Refrão]

G C F
The first time it was a tragedy, the second time was a farce

G C F
Outside it's nineteen-thirtythree so I'm hitting the bar

[Refrão]

C G
But I don't know what's going on anymore

Am
The world outside is burning with a brand new light

F
But it isn't one that makes me feel warm

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

Am C C C
For the daaaaaawwwwwwn

( Am C C )

[Ponte]

G C
Aren't you ashamed of this?

F
I surely hope that you are

G C F
We live in a society that's maybe heading for Mars

G C F
But down here we still have a shower of bastards taking charge

G C F
Outside it's nineteen-thirtythree so I'm hitting the bar

[Refrão]

G
But I don't know what's going on anymore

Am
The world outside is burning with a brand new light

F
But it isn't one that makes me feel warm

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

G C F
Don't go mistaking your house burning down for the dawn

Acordes

